

My Favourite Festival

By Toby Lo

Hello, everyone. My name is Toby. I am eight years old. I live in Hong Kong. My favourite festival is Chinese New Year. It is a Chinese festival.

Chinese New Year is in winter. It is cold, dry and windy. At Chinese New Year, I usually wear a sweater, trousers and boots. They are beautiful.

To celebrate Chinese New Year, we usually eat rice cakes and turnip cakes. My parents and I usually go to the flower market. The flower market is big and crowded. We usually celebrate the festival for ten or eleven days.

It is such a fun festival. I am excited. Which festival do you like best?
