An Unforgettable Birthday
By Chan Sonia

Today was my birthday. I had a fantastic day. In the morning, I got up at 8 o'clock. I went to a shopping centre with my parents. We went to a toy shop. My parents bought me a teddy bear. The teddy bear was cute and fluffy so I liked it very much.

In the afternoon, we went to McDonald's because we were hungry. I ate a hamburger and drank cola. My parents had chicken wings and French fries. Then, we went to a cinema. We watched a film. It was about a white unicorn with magic power. We were happy because the movie was great.

After that, we went home. I was bored so I took a nap. 'Sonia!' I heard Mum calling my name so I woke up. I opened my eyes and my parents sang the Happy Birthday Song for me. 'Happy birthday!' said Dad. I saw a chocolate cake and a lot of presents on my desk. How exciting!

Soon, I unwrapped the presents. Wow! It's a unicorn dress and a rainbow pencil case! I squealed in delight, 'Mum and Dad, thank you!' Then, we cut the cake and ate it. The cake was yummy!

What an unforgettable day!
