

A Bad Day

Jim and his friends are playing football in the playground. Jim shouts, 'Tom, catch the ball!' They love playing football because it is fun. They are happy.

Suddenly, it is becoming cloudy. They shout, 'Oh no! It is cloudy! We can't play football.' They do not like the cloudy weather because it is not fun. They are disappointed.

Suddenly, it rains. They shout, 'Oh no! It's raining!' Jim finds a shelter. Jim shouts, 'There is a shelter.' They are sad because it is raining so heavily that they cannot play football.

They are in the shelter now. They say, 'We are lucky to find a shelter.' They like the shelter because it can be used to shelter from the rain. They are happy.

What a bad day!
