

A Shopping Experience

Last Saturday, Peter and his mum went to Tai Tai Market to buy some fruit. They wanted to make a salad. Peter said, 'Hey, Mum. Let's go to the second floor to buy some fruit.' 'Ok,' said Mum. They were very happy and excited.

Then, Peter's mum stood next to a fruit stall and said, 'These apples look very yummy to make a salad.' Peter said, 'The apples are very red.' The shopkeeper shouted, 'Look at these apples. They are very sweet. Come to buy and make a yummy salad for your children!' Peter loves apples and he asked, 'Mum, can we buy these apples?' 'Great! I love them too.' Said Mum. They bought apples happily.

Next, Mum went to another stall but Peter was still standing at the stall selling apples because he saw a thief was going to take a woman's purse. Peter couldn't believe his eyes and felt scared.

At last, Peter was worried and shouted, 'There is a thief!' Everyone turned back, the woman took her purse back. Peter used his phone to call the police immediately. The police came. The thief went on a police car and the policeman said, 'You are a good boy. You help us to catch this thief!' He felt great!

By Deng Zihuan