Captain Cruel's Adventure on the Island

Once upon a time, a pirate called Captain Cruel lived on a pirate ship with his pirates. He had a parrot named Peter. Captain Cruel was an old man who was ugly. He had to walk with his one leg. He was greedy and cruel. He always beat people. He wore an eye patch on his left eye. He always carried a sword with him. He wanted to find a treasure with the help of a map.

One day, he set off for an island with his pirates. They went there by their pirate ship. They were excited. When they arrived, they saw some big birds which were colourful. But it was not the strangest thing that they saw. The strangest thing was a talking tree. The island looked dangerous. The tree told them that it was not safe to find the treasure. But Captain Cruel was so proud that he did not listen to the talking tree and he cut it down. Later, he found a cave. He saw a troll. He said, 'Who's there?' It was a troll who lived in the cave to protect the treasure. The troll had big hands and long hair. He was very strong. He was smart, clever but poor. He only wore a pair of dirty shorts. He knew Captain Cruel wanted to steal the treasure so he fought against him. The fighting was very exciting.

In the end, the troll killed Captain Cruel and his friends. He protected the treasure from being stolen. No one knew what's inside the treasure box. If you want to know, you might die like Captain Cruel!

By Thomas Huang Tak Lung