

My Favourite Festival

Hello everyone! My name is Alice. I am eight years old. I live in Shenzhen. My favourite festival is Chinese New Year. It is a Chinese festival.

Chinese New Year is in winter. It is cold and dry. At Chinese New Year, I usually wear a big coat, a long shirt and red boots.

To celebrate Chinese New Year, we usually visit relatives in the morning and I get red packets. In the afternoon, we usually go to the flower market. In the evening, we usually watch fireworks and have a big meal. We usually eat rice cakes, turnip cakes and candies.

It is such an excitement for me and all the Chinese people. Do you like Chinese New Year? Which festival do you like best?
