

Alice's Adventure in the Forest

Once upon a time, a girl called Alice lived in a forest with her mother and father. She is kind-hearted, helpful and outgoing. She had long golden hair and big brown eyes so she looked beautiful. She usually wore a blue dress with an apron. She had a humorous friend. It was called Ricky Rabbit. They always played together. They always played hide-and-seek. They always forgot their meals when they played excitedly.

One day, Alice got lost when they were playing hide-and-seek. Alice was very scared because it was dark and cold. Alice shouted, "Are there any people here?" No one replied her. She was very tired after she played hide-and-seek with Ricky Rabbit. She slept on the tree. Suddenly, the strange and strong wind blew Alice into a big dark hole. Alice didn't know it because she slept like a log.

Next morning, Alice woke up. She saw a beautiful castle in front of her. She said, "Wow! It's very beautiful and big. If I can live inside, I will be very happy." She saw a big garden. She picked a flower and smell. "Wow! It smells good," said Alice happily. Alice kept walking around the garden and picked the flowers. She wanted to give some flowers to her mum. She felt happy.

When Alice was picking the flowers, a queen came. She looked terribly ugly. Alice was scared of her because she punished her. "You are a naughty girl. You mustn't pick the flowers from my garden. You have to clean my garden," said the queen angrily. "I'm very sorry! Can you forgive me?" asked Alice sacredly and politely. "No, I don't forgive you," said the queen. As a result, Alice needed to help the queen to clean her garden.

When the queen was sleeping, Alice escaped. She didn't want to help her. Alice ran away. The queen noticed it and chased her. She said, "Don't run!" Alice said, "Sorry. I don't want to help you!" She found a big hole and jumped into the hole. The queen couldn't find her so she gave up. Alice came back home. Her mum asked her, "Alice, where did you go? I can't find you." She told her mum about her adventure. She still felt scared and her mum thought her adventure was strange.

Since then, Alice never went there again because it was horrible. What a strange adventure!
