

TWGHs Ma Kam Chan Memorial Primary School

The NET Post

Issue month : July 2019
Edited by Mr Wright, Miss M, Mr Whittle,
Miss Mariam, Miss T and Mr Owen

The newest edition of the NET post includes all sorts of fun and engaging English activities and programmes we have held this year. Come on and have a look!

Sharing Cultures on Elite Team Fun Day

NETs sharing their culture with Elite Team students

Students getting Pakistani henna tattoos

Enjoying chips and salsa from America

Delicious samosas with chutney from India

Crackers with Marmite from the United Kingdom

English Easter Extravaganza

Opening eggs at the Easter party

Egg and spoon race

Challenge: Sit on the balloons to pop!

Happy Easter from Elite Team!

Miss M making Easter crafts together with P.3

Making learning English FUN in the NET lessons

P.1

P.1 learned about weather and clothes.

Strike a pose with Miss T!

P.1 students are all smiles.

P.2

P.2 learned about ordering food and menus.

Taste test: Sweet or sour?

Ordering food in MKC Restaurant

P.3

5-in-1 lessons focus on small group guided reading.

Small group reading with Mr Wright

P.3 students in the end-of-year sharing programme

P.4

Students read about helping others and keeping fit.

Making shoes after reading Elves and the Shoemaker

Weighing in after reading Well Done Max

P.5

Learned about diaries and crime stories.

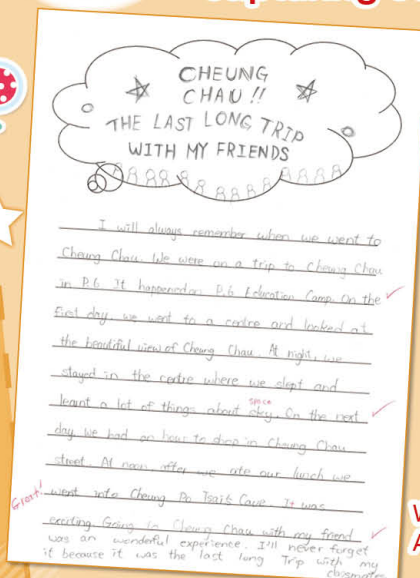

Mr Whittle helping students make a diary

Students sharing their diary entries

P.6

Read about animal welfare and capturing school memories.

Presenting animal adoption posters

Writing about a memorable experience: A trip to Cheung Chau

English outside the classroom

Extracurricular Language Environment

English Day

English Days happen every Friday and feature a number of different themes. This term students learned about clothes, animals and food. It's a great opportunity to chat with friends, play games and practise English.

Assembly games: Learning about clothes

English Day iPad games

Friday recess games are the place to be!

Is it chilly in here?

Fun and Food Festival

Fun and Food Festival is a great reward every year for students who go above-and-beyond in English participation and performance. There are photo booths, dim sum, snacks, face painting and games. It sounds delicious and exciting!

Playing fun games

Come and join the fun!

Take photos and be a star!

Students posing with Miss M

Storytelling

Storytelling is a great way to arouse students' interests in reading English books. Introducing books from the library motivates students to check out new titles.

Miss M reading a story

Students listening to a story about Fly Guy

Library Activities

The library activities gave students and NETs a chance to discuss their favourite books, solve riddles, and simply chat in English.

This book is funny!

Answer the question about students' personality and get a prize

Bringing English to our MKC audience

Chat Captains and Morning Greetings

Every morning there's a different chance to chat with the NETs or have an assembly. Chat Captains are student helpers recruited to chat and play games with students on Wednesday mornings. Other mornings the NETs hold assemblies and chat when students arrive. At Choi Yuen, the NETs even join in morning exercises.

Meet our Chat Captains

Introduction assembly for Chat Captains

Miss T playing badminton with the students

Mr Owen sharing football tips

Can you guess the picture?

iPads help get students talking

Mr Wright playing an English word game

MKC NET TV

MKC NET TV is our school English language video channel. Our NETs have made all kinds of English videos ranging from humorous to informative ones. Students enjoy watching the videos at lunch. Take a look at what happens behind the scenes.

NETs in the studio chatting about their favourite animals

NETs recommend books to read

Shooting hoops

Miss M and Mr Whittle talking about the importance of recycling

Who's going to win?